GENERAL CONTRACT PROVISIONS

1. Advertiser represents and warrants to NACA that Advertiser is properly authorized to publish the entire content and subject matter of any material, whether copy, text, photos, illustrations, etc. ("Advertising Material"), submitted to NACA for publication. By signing this Advertising Contract, Advertiser represents and warrants that Advertiser has obtained the written consent of any living person(s) whose name, picture or testimonial is to be used in any Advertising Material submitted to NACA for publication. Advertiser agrees to indemnify and hold NACA harmless from and against any loss, expense (including attorneys' fees) or other liability resulting from any claims or suits for libel, violation of right of privacy, plagiarism, copyright, trademark infringement and any other claims or suits that may arise out of, or are related in any way to this Advertising Contract or any Advertising Material submitted to NACA.
2. All Advertising Material submitted to NACA for publication is subject to NACA's approval before publication of such Advertising Material. NACA reserves the right to reject or exclude any Advertising Material that is deemed by NACA, in its sole discretion, to be unethical, misleading, extravagant, challenging, questionable in character, in bad taste, detrimental to public health or interest, or otherwise inappropriate or incompatible with the character of the publication, whether or not such Advertising Material has already been accepted and/or published in any prior NACA publication.
3. NACA will not publish ads from Advertiser promoting educational sessions in which the Advertiser is presenting.
4. Any advertorials published in Campus Activities Programming[®] magazine will be labeled as an advertisement. 5. NACA assumes no responsibility for improper or illegal use of marketing promotions/giveaways contained in an advertisement.
6. NACA assumes no liability for damages or losses as a result of events beyond its control such as strikes, accidents, fires, acts of God, electrical or technical problems or outages, or other contingencies beyond NACA's control.
7. NACA assumes no liability for actions or inactions of third parties.
8. In the event that the Advertiser cancels the advertising order (in writing) prior to the completion of the contracted order, NACA reserves the right to bill the advertiser for any cost difference between the contracted frequency rate as specified in this contract and the number of issues actually run.
9. If the publication(s) selected above by Advertiser are discontinued, NACA shall issue a prorated refund to Advertiser.
10. All credit card payments will be charged on the stated Art Due Date. All other forms of payment must be received by 4pm Eastern on the stated Art Due Date. If any advertising fees/charges remain unpaid more than 15 days after the Advertising Art Due Date, NACA reserves the right to cancel this contract, and any advertising scheduled in any NACA publication may be pulled.
11. Any costs incurred by NACA to collect the advertising fees charged hereunder, including attorneys' fees, will be charged to and be the responsibility of the Advertiser. NACA reserves the right to apply any funds received from Advertiser to any outstanding costs or fees Advertiser owes to NACA, regardless of the purpose for which such funds were remitted to NACA. Advertiser will not be allowed to place any other advertisement in any NACA publication or participate in any NACA events until all costs and fees owed to NACA under this Advertising Contract are paid in full.
12. Requests for 2024–2025 school year premium placement (e.g., covers) are accepted first right of refusal through Aug. 1, 2024. After this date, requests are accepted on a first come, first served basis. Due to a limited number of premium placement ads, space will be assigned based upon availability.
